Terms

- Bring your CNIC (or passport) and any medicine you take. Army and police check posts ask for ID.
- The day-by-day plan can change because of weather, road closures or other reasons beyond our control. Our trip captain will choose the safest option and cover missed places where possible.
- Rooms are shared as booked (quad, triple or twin). In some places a quad room has 2 to 3 beds plus mattresses.
- On mountain roads the vehicle air conditioning is switched off at times to stop the engine overheating.
- Seats in the vehicle rotate during the trip so everyone gets a turn at the front.
- Anyone who misbehaves with locals or other travellers, uses abusive language, drugs or weapons may be removed from the trip without a refund.
- We take every care for your safety, but mountain travel carries risks such as landslides and road accidents. Please travel with personal insurance if you can.
- We are not responsible for theft, loss or damage to personal belongings.
- Leave no trace: we keep the mountains clean and expect the same of our travellers.
- Deposits, payments and refunds follow the booking policy shown when you book on mountainmusafir.com.
